25 Free Beautiful Vector Gradients For Your Next Design Project

Share   Share   Tweet   Share

New Delhi-based designer and 3D illustrator Amrit Pal Singh has come up with a free collection of 25 trendy vector gradients inspired by Unicorns. These kind of holographic and multicolored pastel gradients are one of the major trends in graphic, web, and UI design nowadays.

Amrit claims that no unicorns were harmed during the making of this product ?. Check out the gradients below and download the full pack from the link at the bottom.
